☐ I have attached more statements on the Additional Paragraphs for Answer/Response Complaint/Petition form.

An affirmative defense is not that same as saying "I did nothing wrong." Instead, it is saying: "even if you think the landlord is right, I should win because I have this defense."

2. AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES (Reasons why the Plaintiff should not win the case even if everything in the complaint was true.):

NOTE:	The affirmative defenses in 2a-2f are not a complete list and may not apply to your case. Other affirmative defenses may apply to your situation, such as if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You live in public or subsidized housing, or • You are a survivor of domestic abuse/gender-based violence, or • Your landlord lost the property in foreclosure. To learn more about defenses to an Eviction Complaint, see illinoislegalaid.org/legal-information/common-eviction-defenses. At trial, you must show proof of what you select as an affirmative defense. Proof might include a payment receipt, photos of your unit, or a record of communications between you and the landlord. The judge will decide whether the affirmative defense is valid based on the evidence that you show.
--------------	--

In many cases, the Plaintiff (landlord) is required to give the tenant written notice before filing an eviction case. Learn more about notice requirements at illinoislegalaid.org/legal-information/common-eviction-defenses.

Check 2b if your landlord says you violated the lease and your lease or state or local law give you the right to 'cure' or fix the violation. For example, state law gives a 5-day cure period for non-payment of rent.

Check 2c if all the statements in it are true. If the judge decides that the property conditions reduce, but do not eliminate, the amount of rent you owe, then this may still lead to an Eviction Judgment against you. Check your local rules for any additional requirements for how this defense can be used.

In the table, describe each problem you told your landlord about (lack of heat, rodents, etc.). Be as specific as possible with the dates (at least the month and year).

- ☐ a. No Notice or Improper Notice (check all that apply):
- ☐ No Notice: The landlord says that I did not pay my rent or that I otherwise violated my lease, but I did not get a written notice from the landlord.
- ☐ Improper Service of Notice: The landlord did not give me notice in a lawful way.
- ☐ Improper Notice: The notice did not say the correct number of days or the landlord did not wait the correct number of days before filing the Eviction Complaint.
- ☐ Inadequate Notice: The notice is missing required information like the amount of rent owed or how I violated the lease.
- ☐ b. Cure (Fix the lease violation to stop the eviction)
- I had a right to fix (cure) the violation and I did so within the required time period.
- NOTE: If you live in Chicago or Cook County, most tenants have a one-time right to stop an eviction for unpaid rent. This is called "pay and stay." You can cure by paying back rent and court costs before a judge signs an Eviction Order. If your building has six units or fewer, this only applies if your landlord does not live in the building.
- Additional details about how you fixed the lease violation:
- ☐ c. Bad Property Conditions
- Plaintiff (landlord) is trying to evict me for not paying rent. But the landlord's failure to make necessary repairs reduced the value of the property by an amount that is more than the rent I owe. In the alternative, any reduction in the value of the property should decrease the rent I owe. In support of my Bad Property Conditions defense, I state:

If you checked this defense, fill out the table below.

My unit has had these serious problems that the landlord knew about :	Date when problem started	Date when fixed (if any)
1.
3.

☐ I have attached more problems in the Additional Bad Property Conditions form.

Check 2d if you believe the landlord filed the eviction in retaliation for something you did. This means you complained about a:

- housing condition,
- health violation, or
- other violation

about the property to an appropriate organization, and the landlord is evicting you for complaining.

State law only protects you from being evicted if you complain to someone in government about your landlord or unit.

Chicago, Cook County, and other local jurisdictions may have extra protections for some renters.

Check 2e if after learning about the alleged lease violations, the Plaintiff (landlord) acted in a way that showed the lease continued. Explain how the landlord did this.

Check 2f if you attempted to pay your landlord and your landlord improperly rejected your payment before your time to pay the rent expired.

Check 2g if you have an affirmative defense not listed above in 2a-f and name it. For example, "the landlord no longer owns the property." For more information on potential affirmative defenses, see: illinoislegalaid.org/legal-information/common-eviction-defenses.

List each additional affirmative defense separately. If you have more than one, attach the Additional Affirmative Defenses/Counterclaims form.

☐ d. Retaliation

I am protected from retaliation by (check all that apply):

☐ i. State law: My landlord retaliated against me because I complained to someone in government about a building code or violation within my unit.

☐ ii. Local ordinance:

Municipal or county ordinance where property is located: _____

My landlord retaliated against me because I complained to (check all that apply):

☐ my landlord ☐ someone in government

☐ a legal organization ☐ the media

☐ a community group ☐ a tenant's organization

☐ other person or entity: _____

☐ or did other protected activity (name the activity): _____

Provide details here, including who you reported it to, when you told them, and what you told them:

☐ e. Waiver

Plaintiff (landlord) is trying to evict me for a lease violation. After the landlord learned about this violation, the landlord made a new lease with me on _____ and / or accepted rent on _____ .

Date

Additional Details:

☐ f. Refusal to Accept Rent Payment

The Plaintiff (landlord) refused my rent payment on _____

Date

when I tried to pay $ _____ .

Amount

Additional Details:

☐ g. Other affirmative defense: _____

Name of affirmative defense

In support of this affirmative defense, I state these facts:

☐ I have attached an Additional Affirmative Defenses/Counterclaims form.

3. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

In Section 3, include any extra information you think the judge should consider in your case. NOTE: You must still raise your defenses at trial.

The Eviction Act 735 ILCS 5/9-101 et seq. limits what kinds of counterclaims you can raise. They generally must address the right to possession. If the judge dismisses your counterclaim because it is not directly related to the eviction, you may have to file an additional lawsuit. To make sure you can do this, ask the judge to dismiss your counterclaim without prejudice.

You must list each counterclaim separately. If you have more than one counterclaim, attach the Additional Affirmative Defenses/Counterclaims form.

735 ILCS 5/2-610\(b\) requires that you swear to a lack of knowledge if you cannot admit or deny any of the statements in the Complaint.

Under the Code of Civil Procedure, 735 ILCS 5/1-109, making a statement on this form that you know to be false is perjury, a Class 3 Felony.

If you are completing this form on a computer, sign your name by typing it. If you are completing it by hand, sign and print your name.

Enter your complete current address, telephone number, and email address, if you have one.

4. COUNTERCLAIMS (Your separate legal claim(s) against the Plaintiff, specifically stating what money damages or other relief you want from the Court. Counterclaims must be directly related to the eviction or the judge may reject them.)

- ☐ I have a counterclaim against the landlord (state what you are claiming and the facts to support your claims):

I ask the Court to order the landlord to give me the following money damages and other relief that I am entitled to by law:

If the Court dismisses any counterclaims, I ask that the Court dismiss them without prejudice.

- ☐ I have attached an Additional Affirmative Defenses/Counterclaims form.

If the Complaint is verified by oath, then I certify that my answers above are true and correct. I understand that making a false statement on this form is perjury and has penalties provided by law under 735 ILCS 5/1-109.

Where I answer “Do Not Know” to paragraphs in section 1, above, I swear that I do not have enough information to admit or deny the statements in these paragraphs.

I understand that making a false statement on this form is perjury and has penalties provided by law under 735 ILCS 5/1-109.
